WHAT IS THE MIAMI-DADE COUNTY COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

The Miami-Dade County Commission for Women, formerly the Miami-Dade County Commission on the Status of Women, was founded in 1971 by feminist leader Roxcy Bolton. Its 26 members are appointed for four year terms by the Board of County Commissioners to serve in an advisory capacity to them and to the community and all agencies and persons in Miami-Dade County "with respect to all matters pertaining to the status of women".

Membership on the Commission for Women reflects the diverse cultures and ethnic backgrounds represented in Miami-Dade County and the concerns of all women are included in the Commission's purview. The Ordinance creating the Commission for Women mandates that the Commission will monitor, among other things, the condition of women as related to discrimination, employment, education, establishment of day care centers and attitudes toward women in the community.

MIAMI-DADE COUNTY COMMISSION FOR WOMEN STATEMENT OF PURPOSE:

To seek for every woman privilege equal to her potential and responsibility.

To inspire in women desire for self-improvement and pride of being regardless of race, color, creed or age.

To encourage involvement of women in matters pertaining to community progress; to encourage women to recognize family environment as fundamental to preservation of our national culture and security.

To work toward utilization of capable women in roles of leadership.

To work toward legislation granting women equality before the law.

The Miami-Dade County Commission for Women serves the women in our community in many ways -

Supporting and advocating for important legislation such as:

the County Contraceptive Equity Resolution in 2001

the Domestic Violence Leave Ordinance in 1999;

the Living Wage Ordinance in 1999;

Revision 9 to the Florida Constitution in 1998;

the Gender Pricing Ordinance in 1997;

the Family Leave Ordinance in 1991;

the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA); and the Convention on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW).

Sponsoring various activities such as:

Annual Women's Healthcare Conference;

Annual Women's History Month activity;

Annual Connections networking reception;

Workshops on domestic violence, women in business, and other issues of concern to women;

Display of the “Silent Witness Initiative” Figures For Domestic Violence Awareness Month in 1999.

Serving on important committees such as the County Manager's Advisory Committee on Women's Issues and the Women's History Curriculum Advisory Committee of the Miami-Dade County Public Schools.

Hosting a monthly television program on WLRN Cable Tap, and making media appearances to discuss a variety of topics of interest to women.

Collaborating on different projects with the Women's Bureau of the U.S. Labor Department, the White House Office of Women's Initiatives, the National Association of Commissions for Women, and the Florida Commission on the Status of Women.

Hosting the 1996 convention of the National Association of Commission for Women in Miami Beach.

Publication of the annual "Connections" Directory of local women's organizations.

Hosting foreign women dignitaries through the U.S. International Visitor Program.

Participation of Commission members and staff as speakers at workshops, conferences, Women's History Month events, and diversity day programs.

Co-sponsoring the 2000 "In the Company of Women" awards for Women's History Month.

Obtained funding for the opening of a Domestic Violence Intake Unit in the Miami Beach Branch Courthouse.

Visiting the Women's Detention Center to evaluate the needs of the inmates.

Adopting "A Woman's Place" Center for homeless women to assist with fundraising and other needs.

The Connections Directory is our attempt to list the many women's organizations and programs in Miami-Dade County. We make every effort to be as comprehensive as possible but we know that, undoubtedly, many worthy organizations are inadvertently omitted. Please bring these organizations to our attention so that they can be included in next year's edition. Some of these organizations and programs also charge a fee for their services and programs, while others charge only membership dues and some are free. Also, some of the organizations listed represent specific partisan political or religious points of view. The Commission for Women simply lists these organizations in the Directory as a public service and does not necessarily advocate the particular point of view espoused by the organizations.

Dear Friends:

The Miami-Dade County Commission for Women is pleased to present the community with our 2001 Connections Directory. The Directory lists many diverse and respected women's organizations that are doing so much to improve the quality of life in the Miami-Dade area.

Our community is a challenging place to live, with great needs and demands but also with rich rewards and great satisfaction for those who take the time to care about it. These women's organizations have demonstrated time and time again that they are committed to the future of Miami-Dade County. They include business, political, social services, religious and professional interests; something for everyone. Please take the time to read about the organizations listed in the Directory, for they will benefit from your involvement.

We are always pleasantly surprised at the tremendous amount of interest the Connections Directory generates every year. It has become a valuable informational and networking tool for everyone in the community, so please share it with your friends, family and associates who want to make a difference.

I am also excited that the Commission for Women is celebrating its 30th anniversary this year. Hundreds of dedicated women, and even some men, have given much of their time and energy over the years as members of the Commission. Our sincerest thanks to all of them. Our deepest gratitude also goes to Roxcy Bolton. As our founder, she had the foresight and will back in 1971 to fight for the creation of a women's commission.

Finally, of course, we thank the Board of County Commissioners, the Mayor, and the County Manager for their continued support.

Sincerely,

Magali R. Abad
Chairperson

CREATING CONNECTIONS

Like many other good things, this directory evolved from a humble beginning. In 1979, before "networking" became a buzzword, Dorothy Sibley, then the Executive Director of the Miami-Dade County Commission for Women, realized that she was spending a great deal of her time putting people together for their mutual benefit, and answering questions about who was doing what, and why.

Sending out a handwritten, crossed out and marked up list of women's clubs finally became an embarrassment. There had to be a better way to share information about programs and events of common interest to all women. With financial help from the County and using the membership list of the Women's Committee of 100 as a starting point, the first CONNECTIONS directory was distributed. Overnight, it became the basis for a community communication network.
